RE: EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS REMINDER

This is a reminder to every licensed bail bondsmen and bail bond runner that each bail bond licensee must complete at least three hours of bail bond continuing education (CE) in subjects related to the duties and responsibilities of a runner or bail bondsman before renewal of the license. For the upcoming license renewal, CE requirements must be completed by June 30, 2013. These educational requirements shall be met with completion of an approved bail bond CE course through a bail bond CE provider approved by the North Carolina Department of Insurance.

A person who receives his/her first bail bond license on or after January 1, 2013, does not have to complete CE requirements until June 30, 2014. A person who has received a written exemption or an extension to CE requirements from the Agent Services Division also does not need to complete CE requirements by June 30, 2013.

Information on approved bail bond CE providers is posted on the Department's website in the following location: http://www.ncdoi.com/ASD/ASD_BailBondsmen_CE_Info.aspx

If you have any questions about bail bond CE requirements or approved bail bond CE providers, please contact Agent Services Division at (919) 807-6800.
