

INFORMATION BULLETIN

*Wayne Goodwin, Commissioner of Insurance
N.C. State Fire Marshal*

---

Emergency Service Practices for Abandoned Vehicles in Severe Weather

During severe winter weather, there is the potential that stranded motorists will abandon their vehicles on North Carolina roadways. To eliminate duplication of search efforts for stranded motorists, the North Carolina State Highway Patrol and the Division of North Carolina Emergency Management are recommending that emergency service partners adopt a statewide practice for marking abandoned vehicles during severe weather.

A letter from NCSPH Colonel William Grey provides additional information.