USDOJ Webinar on Pools

On Friday, April 20th, the US Department of Justice sent out the notice below announcing a set of webinars on pools. This should help address questions that have been plaguing the industry for the past several months. The www.ada.gov website does have a notice on its front page already regarding this seminar so take the first-come-first-served basis seriously.

USDOJ Notice:

The Department of Justice is announcing free webinars that will provide information and technical assistance addressing the accessible pool entry requirements of the revised 2010 ADA Regulations and the 2010 ADA Standards as they relate to existing pools.

The first webinar will be May 2, 2012 from 2:30 - 3:45 EDT and it will address the pool access provisions as they apply to the existing pools of public accommodations subject to title III of the ADA.

The second webinar will be May 9, 2012 from 2:30 - 3:45 EDT and it will address how the pool access provisions apply to the existing pools of state and local governmental entities subject to title II of the ADA.

Registration

Registration opens on Tuesday, April 23, 2012 at 3pm EDT. A link for registration will be available on this page at that time. Registration is limited and available on a first-come-first-serve basis at www.ADA.gov. Each webinar will also be archived and will be available for rebroadcast on www.ADA.gov a few days after each event.

Submission of Questions

Questions pertaining to the application of the regulations to existing pools may be submitted in advance of each webinar beginning with the opening of registration on Tuesday, April 23, 2012. There will also be a limited opportunity for registrants to submit questions during each webinar.

Please note: The Department is unable to entertain any questions about its pending rulemaking.

To learn more about the ADA you may call the Justice Department's toll-free ADA information Line at 800-514-0301 or 800-514-0383 (TDD), or access the ADA website at www.ada.gov.
